

WOMAN SUFFRAGE AGAIN IN SENATE

Constitutional Amendment Is Laid Before Body in New Form by Mr. Shafroth.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED LIKE DEFEATED MEASURE

Leaders in Movement Not Discouraged Because They Lost Fight Yesterday.

The proposed constitutional amendment of woman suffrage was laid before the Senate today in a new form. Senator Shafroth of Colorado offered a joint resolution proposing to submit to the states a constitutional amendment which would compel any state of which more than 8 per cent of the voters demanded such action to submit to the voters of the state the question as to whether women should have the franchise in that state.

An attempt was made by the enemies of the woman suffrage amendment to have the resolution referred to the Judiciary committee instead of to the committee on woman suffrage. A majority of the members of the Judiciary committee is believed to be opposed to woman suffrage. Senator Bryan of Florida made the motion that the resolution be referred to the Judiciary committee instead of the woman suffrage committee.

By a vote of 37 to 25 the Senate refused to send the resolution to the Judiciary committee, where it had undoubtedly have slumbered for a long time, if not forever. The Vice President then announced that the motion of the senator from Florida had been of order any way, according to the rules of the Senate. The motion of Senator Shafroth for the referral of the resolution to the committee on woman suffrage was then adopted on a viva voce vote.

Senator Bryan told the Senate that he had offered his motion to send the resolution to the Judiciary committee not because he did not have confidence in the woman suffrage committee, but because he thought that all constitutional amendment resolutions should be sent to the Judiciary committee.

How the Vote Stood.

The vote on the reference of the resolution to the Judiciary committee was as follows: Twenty-five ayes—Senators Bankhead, Bradley, Brandegee, Bryan, Cullum, Clark (Wyoming), Dillingham, James, Johnson, Lippitt, Martin, Martineau, Overman, Reed, Shafroth, Smith (Georgia), Smith (Maryland), Smith (South Carolina), Swanson, Thornton, Tillman, Vardaman, Weeks and West.

Thirty-seven nays—Senators Ashurst, Bradley, Bristow, Burton, Gallinger, Gorman, Hollis, Hughes, Jones, Kenyon, La Follette, Lane, Lea, Lewis, McCumber, McLean, Myers, Nelson, Newlands, Norris, Owen, Page, Perkins, Pittman, Shafroth, Sherman, Smoot, Stephenson, Sterling, Thompson, Townsend, Walsh, Warren and Works.

Senator Bristow of Kansas introduced a resolution providing for nationwide woman suffrage, identical with the resolution which was defeated in the Senate yesterday afternoon. Senator Bristow, in explanation of his act, pointed out that the necessary two-thirds vote to carry that resolution had been lacking only eleven votes. If six senators should change their minds, the resolution would be passed. He said that he wished to have this resolution pending before the Senate so that the women of the country could work on with the hope of its ultimate passage.

Mr. C. Smith King, treasurer of the National Council of Women Voters, made it plain today that her organization stands back of the original suffrage amendment, and will not support the one introduced by Senator Shafroth.

Advocates Not Discouraged.

Advocates of woman suffrage today declared that they were not discouraged because they lost their fight in the United States Senate yesterday.

Suffrage leaders were pointing today to the majority of one vote in favor of the amendment as proof that their cause had scored a triumph in defeat and was far stronger than its opponents had ever been willing to admit. They professed to see in the action of the Senate only a temporary setback in their fight and express the belief that woman suffrage will eventually come.

The National American Woman Suffrage Association announced today through Mrs. Medill McCormick, chairman of its congressional committee, that it would support the new amendment.

"Suffrage sentiment in the Senate, said Mrs. McCormick, "is strong enough to warrant us in renewing our efforts to secure national legislation and the amendment proposed by Senator Shafroth will meet many of the objections raised during the debate in the Senate and the cause of suffrage will be far advanced by the action of the Senate during the present session."

Yesterday's action of the Senate, following the vote to carry that resolution, the Senate during which many leaders in the suffrage movement pleaded for the passage of the amendment, marked the climax of a spirited campaign launched here the day before the inauguration of President Wilson.

Immediately after the vote Senator Shafroth of Colorado sought to introduce a new resolution for a constitutional amendment requiring each state to vote on granting suffrage to women upon petition of 5 per cent of its voters. The senator voting for the suffrage amendment were: Ashurst, Bradley, Bristow, Burton, Chamberlain, Clark, Clark of Wyoming, Defeated Resolution First Effort.

The resolution defeated yesterday was the first introduced in the present Congress. It was presented by Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, and the woman suffrage committee later authorized Senator Ashurst to report it favorably.

Success Not Expected.

NEW YORK, March 20.—With the exception of Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch, president of the Women's Political Union, the leaders of the organization engaged in the campaign to enfranchise women, today said the vote on the constitutional amendment in the Senate at Washington yesterday was just what they had expected.

Mrs. Blatch expressed sympathy for the democratic party and declared that the vote would result in a fight to cut down the small democratic majority in the Senate and to attain this end she would join in the congressional union campaign.

Dr. Arthur Howard Shaw, president of the National Woman Suffrage Association, and Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, head of the International Suffrage Alliance, however, held to the opinion that it would be bad policy for the suffragists to fight a political party. Dr. Shaw said that his party would not be expected to fight a political party from Congress, adding "that we must get the vote in a few more states."

Miss Mary Garrett Hay, city chairman of the woman suffrage party, said she had not expected the amendment to pass.

Southern Senators in Opposition.

Though otherwise the vote virtually was non-partisan, the southern senators, all democrats, lined up almost solidly against the amendment. They contended it would complicate the negro question in the states of the south, and that the states of the south would be forced to make it a condition of the time being by forcing it to a premature vote.

Miss Paul added that the union hoped that in the two or three months remaining before the session closes Congress would reconsider its action.

Planning for Big Parade.

Suffrage leaders were also going forward today with their plans for the big woman suffrage demonstration here May 9. They said today that 10,000 women would take part in the parade, and that it promised to be the most beautiful and spectacular procession that has ever been planned in this city.

No effort is being spared to make it an artistic affair.

The Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage, under whose auspices a nationwide demonstration will be held May 2, announced today that aides received from organizers in the field showed that the deepest interest is being shown in the proposed demonstration.

Mrs. Arthur M. Dodge, president of the National Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage, in a letter to Chairman Rucker of the House committee on election of Presidents and Vice Presidents, made public today, wrote that she would not ask that her committee be given the right to answer arguments which will be advanced in favor of woman suffrage by the Federal Equal League at a hearing March 24. Mrs. Dodge, in her letter, charges that the suffragists asked for this hearing for publicity only, again using the machinery of the federal government for advertising purposes.

"We consider it useless," she added, "to take the time and attention of your committee to hear arguments against woman suffrage which have already been presented before other committees this winter."

FOR SUFFRAGIST RALLY.

Denied Use of Grant Park, Chicago.

Women Want Base Ball Grounds.

CHICAGO, March 20.—Denied the use of Grant Park, on the lake front, opposite the business district, members of the woman's party of Cook county today began negotiations for the use of the Chicago American League base ball park in which to hold a suffragist rally May 2.

Similar demonstrations will be held on that date in many cities in the United States, under the auspices of the National Woman Suffrage Association, which is seeking an amendment to the federal Constitution providing votes for women.

City park commissioners refused the women the use of Grant Park on the ground that the demonstration would be a political meeting. Political meetings are barred from city parks.

Experiment Stations Favored.

The House mines and mining committee today voted a favorable report on the bill of Representative Taylor of Colorado, providing for the establishment of ten mining experiment stations to improve labor and health conditions in mines and to improve the efficiency of mine operations. Under the bill the stations would be located in Alaska and the others in mining states in the west. The bill carries a provision appropriating $250,000 a year for carrying on the work of each of the stations.

EDWARD BOYLE ADMITS OPPOSING HUGHES BILL

But Testifies He Knows of No Fund Raised by Prison Labor Contractors.

Edward Boyle of Chicago testified to the Senate today that while no specific fund had been raised among prison labor contractors for the defeat of the Hughes bill to regulate shipments of prison products, he had appeared before congressional committees as the legal representative of contractors opposed to the measure, and had been paid under an agreement by which various contractors contributed. He said he had no retainer.

Boyle testified he had been paid to oppose anti-contract labor legislation by officials of the Paramount Knitting Company, having shops in Illinois and Wisconsin. He had no knowledge of the arrangement by which other firms contributed to his pay. He had been appearing before congressional committees in opposition to such legislation since 1908, he said. Duncan McEwen, an official of the Paramount company, had arranged for his appearance in opposition to the Hughes bill.

The lobby committee is investigating the charge that a fifty-thousand-dollar fund was raised to defeat the measure.

Boyle was treasurer for three successive years of the National Conference of Charities and Corrections.

Paid $50 to $100 a Day.

In previous years, Boyle said, his charges had been from $50 to $100 a day and expenses. He had no recollection of the aggregate amount he had received. He appealed to the committee for a complete investigation.

"When it is over I want to be either condemned or fully exonerated," he said.
